No.1: J's 5-4-7

Size: 182cm wide x 153cm high
Guide price: Euros 18,000 - 26,000

An iconic aerial image of J-5 Ranger by Kos, displayed using the historical 'cyanotype' technique of exposing light onto emulsion on 70-year old cotton sail cloth of J-4 Endeavour owned by Sir Thomas Sopwith. This dual-J combination is mounted on a carbon fibre sail of J-7 Velsheda, built in 1933 in the UK by Camper & Nicholsons for Mr W.L. Stephenson.

The piece is protected and encapsulated in a custom-made UV acrylic case and can either be wall-mounted or displayed with colour-controlled lighting on its transparent acrylic base. A wooden transportation box is included, custom-made by Cadogan Tate.

Your maximum bid : Euros _____

No.2: Courageous

Size: 281cm wide x 168cm high
Guide Price: Euros 27,000 - 35,000

A pop-art presentation of America's Cup legends Ted Turner, Dennis Conner and Alan Bond taken by Kos. The colourful, vibrant images are presented on the 50-year old mainsail of the 12-metre Courageous, defender in 1977 of the America's Cup for the New York Yacht Club. She was helmed by "Mouth of the South" Ted Turner, founder of CNN. His starting helmsman was the legendary Dennis Conner. Courageous successfully defended the Cup from challenger Australia 1 owned by Alan Bond.

The piece is protected and encapsulated in a custom-made UV acrylic case and can either be wall-mounted or displayed with colour-controlled lighting on its transparent acrylic base. A wooden transportation box is included, custom-made by Cadogan Tate.

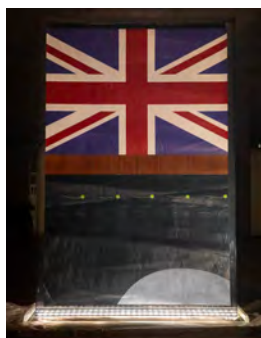

Your maximum bid : Euros _____

No.3: Rule Britannia

Size: 299cm high x 199cm wide
Guide Price: Euros 75,000 - 85,000

An iconic image of athlete Sir Ben Ainslie taken by Kos for his 3rd Olympics in Athens 2004, hand printed on INEOS Britannia's AC75 carbon mainsail from AC36. The 2nd skin of the main displays its Union Jack. Between the two mainsail skins is suspended a fragment of King George V's Britannia, which the King ordered to be scuttled on 10th July 1936. The 90-year old sail is made by Ratsey & Laphorn, the historic sailmaker since 1790 and leading sailmaker to the America's Cup since 1851.

The art piece has been signed by Sir Ben on the occasion of the Royal Yacht Squadron being the Challenger of Record with its yacht INEOS Britannia.

The artwork is protected and encapsulated in a custom-made UV acrylic case and can either be wall-mounted or displayed with colour-controlled lighting on its transparent acrylic base. A wooden transportation box is included, custom-made by Cadogan Tate.

No.4: Graffiti

Size: 188cm high x 206cm wide
Guide Price: Euros 18,000 - 22,000

A silhouette image by Kos of Team New Zealand with Sir Peter Blake from 28th America's Cup in San Diego, amongst a montage of graffiti from the narrow streets of Barcelona, the host city for the 37th America's Cup, also photographed by Kos. The image is hand printed on the carbon fibre jib of Emirates Team New Zealand from AC36, donated by Alinghi Red Bull Racing.

The front and back of the piece show the sail's telltales and defining red camber stripe. The piece is protected and encapsulated in a custom-made UV acrylic case and can either be wall-mounted or displayed with colour-controlled lighting on its transparent acrylic base. A wooden transportation box is included, custom-made by Cadogan Tate.

No.5: Predator

Size:169cm high x 129cm wide
Guide Price: Euros 12,000 - 17,000

A shark arrives to prey on a shoal of shimmering fish. An image by Kos hand printed on a carbon fibre jib used by Alinghi Red Bull Racing for AC37 in Barcelona.

The front and back of the piece show the sail's telltales and defining red camber stripe. The piece is protected and encapsulated in a custom-made UV acrylic case and can either be wall-mounted or displayed with colour-controlled lighting on its transparent acrylic base. A wooden transportation box is included, custom-made by Cadogan Tate.
